

Living Along a Kentucky Stream
 Crossword Puzzle

Down

1. ____ the path of a stream can accelerate erosion.
2. In Kentucky, the best time to ____ trees and shrubs is in late fall or early spring.
3. The closer a property is to a natural area, such as a stream, the higher its ____.
4. Fertilizers pollute streams by promoting too much algae ____.
5. ____ is unsightly, unsanitary, and unsafe for you, your family, and wildlife.
6. ____ waste is the second-largest type of discarded trash.

Across

1. The water in a stream is considered a “ ____ ____ ” and is owned by the state. (two words)
2. ____, which help hold soil in place, are eliminated when people mow to the edge of a stream.
3. Be ____ in your community to be sure that proper stream flow management is followed when areas are paved over or streams are altered.
4. ____ that is not working correctly is a source of pollution.
5. ____ streambanks by planting trees, shrubs, and deep-rooted grasses along the stream’s buffer zone.
6. A ____ stream buffer zone reduces sediment and chemicals from rainwater runoff.
7. ____ stewardship is the idea that all of us are responsible and benefit from the sensible use of streams.

Prepared by Ashley Osborne, Extension Associate for Environmental and Natural Resource Issues.